WESTERN FAST FUND

an emergency assistance fund for students

FAST Fund
Faculty and Students Together

what does the FAST Fund provide?

The Western FAST (Faculty and Students Together) Fund provides quick financial support to Western students experiencing economic emergencies-- with a minimum of red tape and without impacting future financial aid.

- *Small grants to address economic emergencies for housing, transportation, childcare, or medical/dental care.
- *Food cards to local grocery stores and meal swipes for food insecure students.
- *Emergency on-campus residence hall housing.
- *Referrals to local resources like Food Bank, Health Center, & utility assistance.

The FAST Fund Team reviewing requests and distributing funds is:
Jessica Dean, Katey Ellis, Amy Galley, Stacie Lynch-Newberg, & Katie Trujillo

DONATE

Online, in person, by check, or via United Way. Details on back.

Western was one of four colleges to receive a $5,000 grant for AY19-20 to establish our FAST Fund. The sustainability of the fund depends on our ability to help students and raise funding. 100% of all money donated goes directly to student aid.
