RESEARCH INVOLVING HUMAN SUBJECTS

References: Board Policy 2510A: Research Involving Human Subjects and Animals

Western Wyoming Community College (the College) shall assemble an Institutional Review Board (IRB) to document its written processes according to Federal Protection of Human Subjects Regulations 45 C.F.R. 46.115(a)(6), 45 C.F.R. 46.103(b)(4), and 45 C.F.R. 46.103(b)(5). All research projects involving human participants conducted by faculty, staff, and students associated with the College must receive IRB approval prior to initiating the research.

- For more information about the United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) policy for the Protection of Human Subjects, researchers must adhere to: <http://www.hhs.gov/ohrp/humansubjects/guidance/45cfr46.html>.
- For more information about basic ethical questions in the conduct of research consult The Belmont Report at: <http://www.hhs.gov/ohrp/humansubjects/guidance/belmont.html>.

The procedures set forth are provided so that researchers may better understand the reasons for ethical review of research with human participants, the primary ethical principles that govern such research, and the statutory basis of these principles. This document also contains information that should be sufficient to allow researchers to submit an acceptable research proposal for IRB review. The description of information that must be submitted and helpful templates may be accessed at: <https://www.westernwyoming.edu/student-life/campus-amenities/hay-library/undergraduate-research.php>.
