College & Career Readiness

Change your life –Get the opportunity to have more doors open to you! The Learning Center at Western Wyoming Community College is here to help you get a better job and career by improving necessary skills for continued education through a variety of ways in academics, communication skills, and college and career transitions.

Students must be at least 16 years old. Classes are non-credit and free.

We offer students a variety of programs:

High School Equivalency \(HSEC-HiSET\)

English as a Second Language \(ESL\)

Option III - High School Credit Recovery

Educational Brush-up

U.S. Civics

As a student in College and Career Readiness, I have been very thrilled to have been a part of it. All the instructors have helped me out in every way possible. The College and Career Readiness director Liane Lamb is an amazing person as are the instructors. Everyone in College and Career Readiness takes all the students in account and teaches them in their best interest.
