Articulation Agreement

Western Wyoming Community College and Franklin University

The purpose of this document is to establish a 3+1 and/or 2+2 articulation agreement between Western Wyoming Community College and Franklin University. Subject to Western Wyoming Community College's compliance with the requirements set forth herein, this agreement guarantees admission to Franklin University, transferability of credits, and a seamless transition for Western Wyoming Community College graduates seeking a baccalaureate degree.

Western Wyoming Community College and Franklin University enter into this articulation agreement in the spirit of cooperation and mutually recognize each other as quality institutions of higher learning. Each institution is dedicated to serving all students, regardless of race, national origin, religion, sex, disability, color, age, marital status, or other non-merit factors.

TRANSFER

Upon application, Franklin University will guarantee acceptance of all Western Wyoming Community College graduates with an Associate or Associate of Applied Science degree. Transfer students from Western Wyoming Community College, upon acceptance, will have junior standing at Franklin University.

Students transferring from Western Wyoming Community College may transfer additional credits (up to a maximum of 94 semester credit hours) toward their baccalaureate degree. Students must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours at Franklin University to be eligible for the Bachelor of Science degree.

Western Wyoming Community College programs and courses will be identified that will effectively transfer to Franklin University and prepare Western Wyoming Community College students for success in the Franklin University programs.

FINANCIAL AID CONSORTIUM

Franklin University and Western Wyoming Community College will enter into a Financial Aid Consortium, by complying with the necessary information sharing, to entitle students in these programs to the appropriate federal, state and institutional assistance. This process includes annual reporting of tuition fees and academic calendar dates.
