WWCC Leverages Taxpayer Dollars

- An estimated 95% of WWCC students remain in Wyoming and contribute to economic growth. Students who enter the workforce expand the tax base by generating higher earnings and reducing social costs.

- Higher student earnings and associated increases in property income generate about $3.4 million in added tax revenue each year.

- State and local governments will save approximately $76,700 in avoided social costs each year, including savings associated with improved health, lower costs of law enforcement, and fewer welfare claimants.

WWCC Generates a Return on Public Investment

- State and local governments allocated about $23.4 million in support of WWCC in FY 2009-10.

- For every dollar appropriated by state and local governments to WWCC, taxpayers will see a return with a cumulative added value of $2.50 in the form of higher tax revenues and avoided social costs.

- State and local governments will receive a rate of return of 9.6% on their investments in WWCC.
