HONORARY DEGREE

In recognition of outstanding educational service to Western Wyoming Community College, the community, or the state, individuals may be granted an honorary degree by the College.

See following page for procedure.
HONORARY DEGREE

Students or any contract employee may nominate individuals for an honorary degree. Nominations must be submitted to the President’s office no later than April 1.

Approval Process

Upon receipt of a nomination, the College President shall call a meeting of the President Executive Council. The council will review all nominations and forward a recommendation to the Board of Trustees.

If approved, the degree will usually be awarded at commencement but may also be presented at other important ceremonies. The honorary degree will be listed on the commencement program. In some instances, this recognition is intended to be a surprise for the nominee. In the event of this circumstance, the College President will notify the President of the Board of Trustees to assure their support.

Criteria

Outstanding educational service to the College, community, or state, will be of primary importance.

Recognition

The individual will receive a diploma from Western Wyoming Community College stipulating the honorary degree being presented. Special recognition shall be accorded as deemed appropriate by the College President.

A maximum of two honorary degrees will be granted per year.
