“Teachers here challenge you. They make you better. They push you to your limits, which makes you a better student and better at learning. You learn how to learn. It makes you better in the types of learning that you need, and you adjust yourself during the process. I think it’s great! And it prepares you very well for the university setting.”

“Being dedicated to a sport eight months out of the year, it’s more like a job than just going to school. But Western makes it a blast. They’ve got great teachers, great coaches, and great facilities. And the athletes from the different sports spend a lot of time together doing different activities, so we’re all pretty close. It really is like a family. For student-athletes, Western is definitely one step ahead.”

Ryan Slaugh, General Studies
Student-Athlete, Wrestling
“Cheerleading shows you about teamwork and shows you how to be a leader and be confident with yourself. You need to be out there with the crowd and show them that you have spirit for the team.”

“I think Western has prepared me tremendously, mostly from understanding my resources at a college level, being part of Associated Student Government and the Tutor Center and all of these different avenues that I would never have experienced had I just jumped into a university again. I feel like I am able to utilize my resources, and that’s going to be the biggest tool not only in my college experience but in life. I feel like this was a great place for me to establish who I am, and just to have confidence to go forward in the future.”

Michael Pelo, Psychology
Associated Student Government President. Spring 2014
Men’s Basketball Team Captain, 2012-14
“The food services here at Western are pretty awesome. Our main cafeteria is Mitchell's, and basically it's an all-you-can-eat buffet place. It's super-awesome because their times coordinate with classes really well, so you can make sure you get food. But if you don't have time to run to Mitchell's, there's always the T-Rex Grill, where you can hurry and grab something super-fast.”

“My freshman year I was in Rocky, where you have four people who share one bathroom, and you’ve got two rooms with two people in each. That was a whole lot of fun because everyone is really close and you can always go out and hang out. I also lived in the apartment-style units. They’re really cool because you’ve still got the closeness of having a roommate directly in the room with you, but you’ve also got a kitchen. I also lived in Wind River. It has a kitchen, but each person in the apartment has their own room. That’s really nice if you’re a clean freak, because then you keep your room clean and your roommate won’t dirty it up at all.”

Phillip Angerhofer, Business Administration
Men’s Soccer Team Captain, 2013-14
Associated Student Government Secretary, Spring 2014
"When I transfer my Associate's Degree over to the University of Wyoming, there are a lot of classes that I won’t have to take, simply because I went to a two-year college. That was an awesome choice for me. I get to go straight into my program. I get to start taking 4000-level classes. I’m just super-excited for next year. I can’t imagine that there is any challenge in the next two years that I’ll face that Western hasn’t prepared me for."

“I honestly believe that Rock Springs, Wyoming and College Hill are one of the best places on Earth. Western has really fulfilled my college needs for me. One of the greatest things about Western is the people. There are incredible people here. They care about students’ education, but they care about the students, too. It’s not always about the grade, but it’s about taking care of the students. It’s an incredible college, and I am grateful and lucky that I chose to come here.”

“Why should you choose Western? First off, it’s an excellent school. I’ve attended a couple of different schools, and I’ve never had as much support and as much success as I’ve had here, while at the same time taking excellent courses. It’s also very affordable. I was able to put together enough scholarships that in my last four semesters I did not need to pay for anything, which is pretty special these days. You get a fantastic education at a very reasonable price. And last is probably the community. Walking down the hallways, I know people and they know me, and we’re all here working hard together.”
