What Makes You a Western Student?

- You are a student who finds your own path. You learn by doing. You lead instead of follow. You make the most of great opportunities.

- You are a student who thrives on challenges, who works hard and plays hard.

- You are a student who values new friends, seeks out new places, and enjoys new experiences.

- You are a student who knows that the value of going to college is measured by what you get out of it, not how much you pay into it.

- You are a student who matters. You are going to make a difference in your world - and in ours.

- This is what makes you the right student for Western. This is what makes you a Western student.

Whatever your talent, whatever your interest, Western offers you the chance to learn and grow with a community of fellow students who share your passion and commitment to success. At Western, student life isn’t just what you do between classes – it is your true classroom.
Students who love the outdoors will find plenty to do in Rock Springs all year round! Located midway between Flaming Gorge National Recreation Area to the south and the Wind River Mountains to the north, Rock Springs and Sweetwater County offer easy access to rock climbing, fishing, hiking, skiing, whitewater rafting, four-wheeling, and more!

For those who prefer to find their recreation closer to campus, Rock Springs offers many shopping and entertainment options, including White Mountain Mall, a Starbucks, a multiplex theatre, and many fast-food and family-dining establishments. This full-service city of 24,000 also offers a charming downtown featuring shops, cafés, and occasional outdoor festivals and parades.

On campus or off, Western offers students a fun and welcoming community in which to socialize, learn and grow.
Your Western Degree

Your degree from Western Wyoming Community College is a high-quality academic credential from one of the top two-year colleges in the country! Western offers more than 60 Associate Degrees and 26 Certificates in Arts and Sciences, Technology and Industry, Health Sciences, Business and Education, and Visual and Performing Arts.

Western is currently ranked #7 in the nation by Washington Monthly College Guide* and has also been listed as a leading two-year institution by CNN Money and BestColleges.com among other sources.

After graduation, you will have the opportunity to continue your academic success at four-year universities like the University of Wyoming, Utah State University, University of Northern Colorado, Black Hills State University, and many others. If your degree is in a technology and industry field, you will be well prepared to move directly into a thriving and competitive industrial workforce. Either way, Western is your starting point for a successful career!

* Most recent ranking – 2013. Based on the Community College Survey of Student Engagement (CCSSE) and the U.S. Department of Education’s measures of student retention and completion.

 Most recent ranking – 2012. Ranked #13 based on 72-percent student-success rate as reported by Collegemeasures.org.

 Most recent ranking – 2015. Ranked #6 for online degree programs among two-year schools.

The college academic experience is about more than just going to class. Learning comes to life beyond the classroom at Western through activities and involvement with clubs, projects and research opportunities.

The WWCC Honors Program invites students with a 25 ACT, a 3.5 high school GPA, or a 3.25 college GPA to expand their horizons with innovative courses that will enhance their college transcript, involve them in field trips to fascinating locations, and make them eligible for a Spring Semester Honors Stipend worth $500.

Western students enjoy access to faculty-sponsored or mentored research projects involving everything from heart disease and regional ecology to local history and social-science topics. Student researchers also may have opportunities to present their findings at regional or national academic conferences. These learning experiences enrich students’ education and prepare them for the academic rigors of a four-year university.

Students who are academically engaged also complete their degrees more quickly and with greater success. The 16 to Succeed Program at Western encourages students to finish their degrees on time and with distinction, and offers a $1,000 incentive to those who graduate in two years.
It is Western Wyoming Community College’s goal that you will graduate on time and with a level of success necessary to progress either to a four-year college or university or directly into employment into your chosen field.

For many students, this means completing one or more associate degrees in two years or less. For students who must balance their education with full-time jobs and other life responsibilities, it may mean three or four years to degree completion.

No matter what your goal is, and no matter what your timeframe for achieving it may be, Western is here to help you succeed. A college degree is the realization of your potential and an investment in your future. Your path to graduation begins at Western, and it will take you anywhere that you want to go.
Mustang Athletics is an important part of campus life at Western Wyoming Community College. Western sets high expectations for student-athletes on the court, the field and the mat, as well as in the classroom and the community. They are expected to be good students, positive role models, committed athletes, and responsible representatives for the college.

Western fields six NJCAA athletic teams: men and women’s soccer, men and women’s basketball, volleyball, and wrestling. The Mustang coaching staff is very knowledgeable and is committed to producing championships, inspiring excellence, and helping student-athletes to progress in their life journeys.

Western’s Athletic Department works hand-in-hand with prospective student-athletes to ensure that its recruiting process conforms to NJCAA rules and procedures.

For more information on Mustang Athletics, and for recruiting information about specific sports, contact Athletic Director Lu Sweet at lsweet@wwcc.wy.edu or at (307) 382-1740. Go, Mustangs!
Western offers a variety of intramural and fitness activities for all students who want to maintain good health, stay active, and have fun!

Intramural programs include athletics - flag football, co-ed softball, men’s and women’s basketball, and more – as well as a variety of non-athletic activities. Students are invited to recommend other programs that interest them and to recruit other students for teams!

The Exercise Science Building at Western opened in 2014 and features cardio, weight training and spin rooms for student use, as well as space for yoga and other fitness classes. The Aquatic Center is Western’s pool and is open to student use daily during the semester.

Western is also home to Race on the Rock, an annual triathlon event that draws participants from across the Rocky Mountain region. For students who prefer a more relaxed pace, there is an outdoor walking/jogging track that winds through the campus’s desert landscape.
Our Student Ambassadors and Admissions Representatives are happy to show you our campus facilities and residence halls, and to arrange meetings with faculty members in programs that interest you. We can also arrange tickets to Mustang sporting events or Performing Arts shows, depending on schedules.
