Meet Coach Salmon

Jennifer Salmon begins her first season at Western Wyoming Community College in 2017. Salmon comes to Western after serving as a head coach at State University of New York Geneseo for seven years and leading the program from a .333 to .667 winning percentage. Prior to Geneseo, she was an assistant coach for two seasons at Cornell University, two seasons at University of Rochester and one season at Nazareth College, gaining experience in all facets of an intercollegiate volleyball program.

Following her reign at Geneseo, Jennifer founded JLS Empowerment LLC, a life skills education program with the mission of cultivating integrity in today's society. She looks to utilize this experience at Western Wyoming Community College not only with the volleyball program, but the athletic department as a whole.

A 2002 graduate of Ithaca College, Salmon was a standout setter for the Bombers for four seasons. On her way to four American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-Region certificates, she compiled several statistical records, including school records in career assists, service aces and single season assists.

A native of Brockport, New York, Salmon holds a Bachelor's degree in exercise science and a Master's degree in sport psychology from Ithaca College.
